This page has a comprehensive list of reputable criminology journals. Their open access (OA) versions of record are automatically added to CrimRxiv as “Connections,”¹ on a daily basis. If you notice articles from a journal are missing, please let us know so we can check our tools. Beyond CrimRxiv, this list is meant to help people know what journals exist and whether they are diamond OA (□), gold OA (□), or hybrid OA, i.e. paywalled by default (□); and among hybrid journals, whether they have zero embargo,² a partial embargo,³ or total embargo.⁴ OA policies can change without notice, so authors are advised to consult this tutorial on copyright. If you find incorrect information on this page, please email us.
